COMMERCIAL

BY DANIEL LOGAN.

On the Stock Exchange the week has been slow. Friday, succeeding news of raw sugar again reaching the five-cent mark, yielded the largest day's business with strengthening prices. Saturday witnessed the transfer of 1330 shares of McBryde in six deals, with a point off the price a week previous, and a small parcel of Ewa at 50 cents better than the asking price a week back. A comparison of prices of several stocks between the two past weeks proves that the market has generally held its ground. Where declines appear, there have been no very recent transactions to show that the stocks could now be had at last selling price.

LIST INTEGRITY QUESTIONED.

Again complaint is heard that the actual condition of the market is no Grant, D; fnt in gr 3488 por gr 32 and always ascertainable from the stock list. Probably it would be in the interest 81-100 acr land. Manoa Rd, Honolulu, of the business of the Exchange generally if occasion were never given for adverse criticism on this score. An instance furnished is that of a request for e considerable block of a certain stock, with a limit several points higher than the current quotation. Only a small portion of the requested amount could be furnished, yet the next list issued had that particular stock quoted with the asking price some points lower than the figure actually bid. The customer thought it strange that he could not obtain the stock when he had offered a limit of 75 cents a share more than was asked for it by sellers.

THE WEEK'S TRANSACTIONS.

Following are the recorded transactions of the week on the Honolulu Stock and Bond Exchange, the sales of each stock being in the order of their occurrence: Honokaa ($20), 250 at $22.621/2; Kahuku ($20), 33 at $32.75; Ewa llu, Honolulu, Oahu. $300. The Honolulu Gas Co. has purchased a site for its works from John Ena, taking one acre of land with an option on several acres at Iwilei, near the stream, beyond the oil tanks. Mrs. Bathsheba M. Allen has bought from the Bishop Estate 12,886 square feet of land on Richards street, between King and Hotel C Hobron, Par Rel; lots 22 and 23 blk streets, for $10,000. Olaa has held its annual meeting. Its reports showed assets amounting to nearly $7,000,000 and an estimated crop in 1905 of 13.364 tons. The Puna foreclosure sale was continued by Judge De Bolt for 60 days to May 20, and meantime Mr. Dillingham will endeavor to reorganize the enterprise. British scarlet, blue and white lent variety to street life most of the week, from the call of H. B. M. S. Bonaventure en route from Esquimalt to the Asiatic station. THE SENATE.

TWENTY-SEVNETH-DAY

The Senate rushed through its regular order of business on Saturday morning because it has been determined to hold no meeting in the afternoon, and the members wanted to get some work done on the County Act. And, at that, there was not a great deal accomplished, because the Sena-tors ran against the salaries snag. Achi raised the point, which he had urged with some earnestness on Friday after-noon, that the Legislature had no right to fix salaries of county officers. He moved to strike out the item of the salary of the deputy sheriff of Hilo, making the point that for the Legislature to attempt to make appropriations of the countries was in contraven. tions for counties was in contraven tion of the Organic Act. He likewise raised again the point that the counties were corporate bodies and that for the Legislature to attempt to fix for the Legislature to attempt to ax-county salaries violated the rights guaranteed to corporations by the con-stitution of the United States.

He urged that all salaries should be fixed by the County Supervisors, other-wise there would be no county govern-ment and the County Act would be in-
